PHELIPPEAU TAPISSIER FROM FATHER TO SON SINCE 1953

High Standards Expertise Creativity

A PASSION FOR TEXTILES...

... led to the creation of “Phelippeau Tapissier” in 1953... A passion for textiles that has been handed down from one generation to the next since the early 20th century.

Specialising in the crafts of seat trimming and the sewing of soft furnishings, the company today relies on the expertise of more than 20 qualified and highly skilled professionals, some of whom have been awarded the coveted title of “Meilleur Ouvrier de France”, representing France’s top craftspeople.

Drawing on its expertise, “Phelippeau Tapissier” advises architects, decorators and designers, along with an extensive private clientele.

The quality of the work carried out by “Phelippeau Tapissier” has earned it widespread recognition, opening doors to projects in prestigious locations in France and abroad. Its presence on an international level continues to develop.

Sound advice and the appropriate expertise are dedicated to every project, whether classic or contemporary. Each piece of work is imbued with outstanding quality, and all clients are provided with customised service.
